Matthews, From Matter

Richard M. Kesner, until recently the director of the Archives of Appalachia at East Tennessee State University, is now manager of office systems for F. W. Faxon and Co. His article is based on a paper delivered at the 1980 workshop of the Society of Georgia Archivists.

Thornton W. Mitchell retired as archivist of North Carolina in 1981. This article is part of an address, described by Dr. Mitchell as his "professional farewell", delivered at the South Atlantic Archives and Records Conference in May, 1981.

Mary E. Janzen is the senior project archivist in charge of a National Endowment for the Humanities processing grant to the Chicago Historical Society. This article is based on a paper delivered at the 1980 meeting of the Society of American Archivists.

D. Louise Cook is the director of the King Library and Archives of the Martin Luther King, Jr., Center for Nonviolent Social Change, Inc.

Martin I. Elzy is an archivist with the Carter Presidential Materials Project in Atlanta, Georgia.

Gregory S. Hunter is the director of archival programs of the United Negro College Fund, Inc.

JoAnn Heaney Hunter is the assistant director of financial aid and college work study coordinator at St. John's University, New York.

Nicholas C. Burckel is director of the Archives and Area Research Center and executive assistant to the Chancellor at the University of Wisconsin-Parkside.
